

CONSTITUTION CAMBRIAN CAVING COUNCIL, CYNGOR OGOFEYDD CYMREIG

1. NAME

The organisation shall be called the Cambrian Caving Council (Cyngor Ogofeydd Cymreig), hereinafter referred to as the Council.

2. DEFINITION

- 2.1 The term “cave” is deemed to include “mine” and the terms “caving club” and “caver” are deemed to include mine exploration, mine history and similar organisations.
- 2.2 The Council is the national association for caving in Wales, the Forest of Dean and the Marches for individual cavers, caving clubs and similar organisations therein. It represents their interests in Wales, the Forest of Dean and the Marches, and also on a regional basis within the United Kingdom context, whilst maintaining its position as an independent autonomous body.

3. AIMS AND OBJECTS

- 3.1 To encourage the exchange of information between clubs and other regional and national bodies
- 3.2 To safeguard the interests of caving and mining clubs and cavers
- 3.3 To maintain friendly relations with, and foster the spirit of co-operation between similar and associated bodies, with a view to promoting and achieving objects of mutual interest.
- 3.4 To encourage the recording of information on sites of subterranean interest in Wales in the Cambrian Cave Registry, which the Council will maintain, and similarly in the Forest of Dean and the Marches.
- 3.5 To encourage cave conservation.
- 3.6 To support clubs and cave access bodies in obtaining, maintaining, and improving access arrangements in Wales, the Forest of Dean and the Marches

4. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- 4.1 That there shall be respect for the autonomy and independence of action of Individual Members and Member Clubs, provided that these are not against the Aims and Objects of the Council.
- 4.2 That any rights held by the owners and tenants of property containing caves to grant or withhold access be respected. Where clubs, singly or jointly, have control of access delegated to them by the owners, such access should be obtained and granted as freely as possible for responsible cavers, within the terms of those agreements. When obliged to make new agreements, the appropriate body should endeavour to ensure that this freedom is maintained and improved.
- 4.3 The individual members, member clubs and organisations support the policies of the Cambrian Caving Council.

5. MEMBERSHIP
